

DECEMBER 2022

BLUEBIRDS

Your little ones are working hard on getting themselves ready to go outside with all the gear they have to wear to stay warm. Please continue to practice this important skill at home so they can become independent in dressing themselves.		1 Finish Advent Calendar and take home to countdown for Christmas Shark Bite and Pop Up Pirate Games One Snowy Night Story
We are now into the exciting Christmas Season and we will be learning about how people around the world celebrate in different ways. While keeping the magic alive we will talk about why Santa would wear shorts when he is delivering presents in Australia. We will also be practicing for our Christmas Concert, what will we sing? What are some of the things we do in our own homes that make Christmas special for us?	6 Letter to Santa Letter O Craft for Ornament Letter O Grab Tub Upper and Lower Case printing practice of letter O Olive the Octopus's Day of Juggling Story	8 Special Craft to be revealed later Hanging stockings using clothespins Australia picture of Santa Merry Christmas Mom and Dad Story
Reminders: Please send your child to school dressed to go outside every day. A change of socks is a good idea for when snow gets into boots and makes our toes cold.	13 Special Craft to be revealed later Letter Q Craft for Quail Letter Q Grab Tub Upper and Lower Case printing practice of letter Q The Quick Quail Story	15 Las Posadas Poinsettia Craft (Mexico) St. Lucia Crown Craft (Sweden) The Legend of the Poinsettia Story
